

ITES2007 Sixth Italian-Spanish conference on General Topology and applications Bressanone, 26-29 June 2007

Representing Quasi-Uniform Spaces as the Prime Elements of Ordered Structures

Bruce Burdick

Roger Williams University
PO Box 41354, Providence, RI, USA
bburdick@rwu.edu

A recent trend in topology concerns representing topological spaces as the maximal elements in some ordered structure. In the case of quasi-uniform spaces, in order to have the order on the space coincide with the inherited order, we must replace maximal by prime. We present some results along these lines, many of which are motivated by the quasi-uniform hyperspace.