

ITEs2007 Sixth Italian-Spanish conference
on General Topology and applications
Bressanone, 26-29 June 2007

Sequential order of compact sequential spaces. I

Gino Tironi

Università di Trieste

Dipartimento di Matematica e Informatica, via Alfonso Valerio 12/1, 34127 Trieste, Italy

soranzo@units.it, tironi@units.it

The problem of finding compact sequential spaces of arbitrary order is presented and its dependence on the assumptions of the Theory of Sets is examined. In particular several constructions due to Baškirov, Kannan and Dow are compared.

(Joint with Alessandro Soranzo.)

References

- [1] A. V. Arhangel'skiĭ and S. P. Franklin, New ordinal invariants for topological spaces, Michigan Math. Jour. 15 (1968), 313–320.
- [2] A. I. Baškirov, The classification of quotient maps and sequential bicomacta, Soviet Math. Dokl. 15 (1974), 1104–1109.
- [3] A. Dow, On mad families and sequential order, see <http://www.math.uncc.edu/~adow/Others.html> under the title “On the sequential order of Compact spaces”.
- [4] V. Kannan, Ordinal invariants in topology II. Sequential order of compactifications, Compos. Math. 39 (1979), no. 2, 247–262.